NRP WASHINGTON, D.C. · NON-RESIDENT PAKISTANIS

A BRIDGE BETWEEN TWO GREAT NATIONS

A non-profit, non-partisan national organization.

NRP Washington, D.C. is a non-profit, non-partisan organization representing the Pakistani diaspora in the United States and strengthening the Pakistan–United States partnership. We work across education, diplomacy, trade, investment, health and humanitarian service.

Sponsorship funds the Defence Day & Strategic Partnership Forum, the nine community services NRP offers free to the community, and the nine standing committees that carry the programme work.

I The Forum Venue, programme, hospitality and the commemorative tribute at the Defence Day & Strategic Partnership Forum.	II Community services Legal and settlement guidance, scholarships, health outreach and referrals — offered free to the community.	III Programme work Nine standing committees: healthcare, education, policy, media, trade, tourism, energy, coordination and outreach.

6 Strategic Pillars Community empowerment, education, business, trade & diplomacy, women & youth, humanitarian service.	18 Leaders Six executive officers and twelve national board members and coordinators, each with a named portfolio.	Washington, D.C. Headquartered in the capital, with chapters across the United States and Pakistan.

- Volunteer programme access

In-kind support — venue, hospitality, printing, media, professional services — is welcome and recognised at the equivalent level.

Four steps, and a named contact.

01 Tell us the level

Send the sponsorship enquiry form on nrpwashingtondc.org, or write to the address below.

02 Scope the partnership

We confirm what is included at that level and what matters most to your organization.

03 Confirm in writing

Terms, recognition and timing are agreed in writing on both sides before anything is announced.

04 Announced and delivered

Your partnership is recognised across NRP channels and at the Forum, and reported to the national board.

NRP is a non-profit, non-partisan organization. Sponsorship funds programmes and events and confers no political association of any kind. Funds are held and reported by the Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer.
